

uthe

G

T

» Associate of Health Sciences students benefit from intentional advising. The College Advisors are well equipped and connected to four-year school representatives and the SCC Associate of Health Sciences program, and is trained to specifically advise transfer students on requirements. Advisors are committed to student success and are available to answer questions for students.

